Welcome from the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association

The U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association is thrilled to host the 2017 FIS Nordic Junior & U23 World Ski Championships at Utah Olympic Park and the Soldier Hollow Nordic Center. The communities of Park City and Midway, Utah share a rich heritage of hosting international events, including freestyle and snowboarding World Cup and World Championships, the cross country U23 World Championship in 2004 and, of course, the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

The competition venues used during the 2017 Nordic Junior & U23 World Ski Championships are part of a proud Olympic legacy. Following the 2002 Games, the venues were handed over to the Utah Olympic Legacy Foundation, which has done a magnificent job of maintaining them at world-class levels for training and international competition. The venues are also used as community assets, providing access for thousands of youth and residents to participate in winter sport and live healthy, active lifestyles. Hosting the world's best Nordic skiers during this Championship reinforces the mission of the Utah Olympic Legacy Foundation, and your participation will further enhance the image of Nordic skiing as a fun, healthy activity for youth and adults alike. This Championship will enhance the sustainability of Utah's Olympic Legacy, showcasing the positive impacts that the 2002 Games had, and continue to have, on our community and our residents.

Soldier Hollow and Utah Olympic Park are committed to providing a world-class setting for the elite level of competition only a World Championship can provide. The Olympic-caliber trails and jumps themselves will prove worthy tests for even the most seasoned athletes, providing thrilling competitions of the highest quality. Outside of competition, the athlete villages in Park City and Midway will provide a unique social experience for participants from around the world, building friendships and multi-national relationships, and experiencing Utah's unique local culture.

It is you, the athletes and participants, who will make the 2017 FIS Nordic Junior & U23 World Ski Championships such a positive and memorable experience. We hope you will all have performances of which you will be proud, that you will enjoy the event and your time in the United States to the fullest, and that you will return home satisfied with your time spent here in Utah.

Welcome from the Utah Olympic Legacy Foundation

On behalf of the Utah Olympic Legacy Foundation, I welcome you to Utah for the 2017 FIS Nordic Junior & U23 World Ski Championships!

Cradled within the Wasatch mountains outside of Salt Lake City, the Soldier Hollow Nordic Center in Midway and Utah Olympic Park in Park City hosted the world for all Cross Country Skiing, Ski Jumping, Nordic Combined, Biathlon, Bobsled, Skeleton, and Luge events for the 2002 Olympic Winter Games. By any measure, the 2002 Games were a success with incredible venues setting the stage for athletes to perform at their best, and we expect nothing less for the 2017 FIS Nordic Junior & U23 World Ski Championships!

The 2002 Games truly transformed Utah. Now the Utah Olympic Legacy Foundation continues to look ahead, seeking to strengthen its vibrant “living legacy” through a truly unique collaboration amongst sport, business, and government organizations, as well as its citizenry. Recognizing that Utah has amazing natural landscapes and offers convenient access to major metropolitan services and transportation systems, Utah leaders remain committed long after the 2002 Games to support athlete training and the hosting of local, national, and international sport events in Utah’s Olympic venues.

Through these proactive efforts, Utah’s Olympic venues are used year-round by youth of all ages, all levels of athletes from all over the world, and the general public to provide active, healthy, and inspiring environments that showcase Utah’s unique approach to post-Olympic Games uses. We’re proud that Utah’s legacy venues are four times busier today than they were in 2002. Remaining true to UOLF’s sport legacy, ongoing efforts continue to grow and build, and we are proud to showcase this through hosting this incredible event.

As a participant in the 2017 FIS Nordic Junior & U23 World Ski Championships, we invite you to experience Utah’s beautiful setting, world-class venues, rich sport history, and ongoing Olympic legacy as we gather competitors from all over the world.

Again, we welcome you and hope to provide an event that inspires you to perform at your best!

Good luck!
